

LANSING SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

TIMOTHY MUFFITT • MUSIC DIRECTOR & CONDUCTOR

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Catherine Guarino, Director of Education & Community Engagement
(517) 487-5001 ext. 10 - catherine@lansingsymphony.org

LANSING SYMPHONY ANNOUNCES NEW POSITIONS FOR ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

June 21, 2010 – Lansing, MI – The Lansing Symphony Orchestra announces new positions for two of its current administrative staff members.

Karen Cutshaw will assume the role of Director of Finance & Operations, handling all accounting, finance, human resources and operations for the organization. Cutshaw has been with the Lansing Symphony for three years, first as Bookkeeper and recently as Director of Development & Finance. Cutshaw holds a General Associate Degree with a concentration in business from Lansing Community College and is currently pursuing a Bachelor degree in Accounting Information Management.

Catherine Guarino will assume the role of Director of Education & Community Engagement, responsible for the organization's educational programs, public relations, community outreach and ticket sales. Guarino has also been with the Lansing Symphony for three years, first as Box Office & Development Manager and recently as Director of Communications & Ticket Sales. Guarino holds a Bachelor degree in Music Education from Grand Valley State University.

The Lansing Symphony Orchestra was established in 1929. More than 20,000 people attend LSO concerts each year, and more than 250,000 listeners are able to hear broadcasts of the LSO's performances by WKAR-FM Radio. The Symphony's highly acclaimed education programs reach students in kindergarten through 12th grades. For more information, visit www.LansingSymphony.org or find us on Facebook and Twitter.

###