LANSING SYMPHONY WELCOMES KRISTIN L. PETERSON AS DIRECTOR OF MARKETING & DEVELOPMENT

September 14, 2010 – Lansing, MI – The Lansing Symphony Orchestra welcomes Kristin L. Peterson of Okemos, MI as Director of Marketing & Development. Peterson served as Marketing & Development Associate for the Lansing Symphony from 1999 to 2001. From there, she took a position as Assistant Director of Development at Michigan State University's College of Arts & Letters, eventually transitioning to Director of Development for the college. She has also served as Senior Director of Development for Albion College. Peterson is a pianist and holds a Bachelor of Music in Applied Piano Pedagogy and Piano Technology from Michigan State University, with additional education at Louisiana State University and Stephens College in Columbia, MO.

Peterson will begin her new position with the Lansing Symphony on September 20, 2010.

The Lansing Symphony has an administrative staff of four, led by Executive Director Courtney Millbrook. The Lansing Symphony Orchestra was established in 1929. More than 20,000 people attend LSO concerts each year, and more than 250,000 listeners are able to hear broadcasts of the LSO's performances by WKAR-FM Radio. The Symphony's highly acclaimed education programs reach students in kindergarten through 12th grades.
